General Guidelines for Weddings at St. James Parish

1. The diocesan Pre-Nuptial Investigation must be successfully completed by a priest or deacon before a priest or deacon before any wedding date can be set or reserved.
2. The priest or deacon who meets with you to conduct the Diocesan Pre-Nuptial Investigation will usually also witness your marriage, unless you request a priest or deacon of your own choosing. You will be notified in advance if the priest or deacon with whom you met will not be able to preside at your wedding due to vacation schedules or transfers.
3. Floral arrangements must be placed on the tile floor, not on any carpeted areas of the church, nor the altar or the altar steps. Flowers or bows used to decorate the pews must be attached with ribbons or rubber bands, not with any form of tape or adhesive as these may damage the wood finish.
4. All members of the wedding party must be old enough to follow rehearsal instructions. All readers must be able to speak clearly and distinctly, and be prepared to proclaim the reading as we do at Catholic Mass. Anyone performing any service at the wedding must be present for the rehearsal.
5. Flower Girls may not throw flower petals, confetti or anything else inside the church. Ring Bearers do not carry the rings to be used, but rather, they are given to the priest or deacon on the day of the wedding, before the celebration begins.
