DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST,

This weekend we celebrate all of our mothers, both living and deceased. Gratefully, many of us presently have or had a wonderful relationship with our mothers. This is a true blessing.

I think of my own mother today and the blessing she was to me throughout my life even now that the Lord has called her home to Him. My mother was the true heart of our family.

How many mothers have shared with me that being a good mother to their children was their greatest desire in life? “Being a mother is not about what you gave up having a child but what you’ve gained from having one.”

However, it is important that we acknowledge that not everyone has, or had, a close relationship with their mother. It is also a sad fact that there are many women who wanted the blessing of becoming mothers but were not given that special gift. Some women have experienced the devastating loss of a child. For these women, “Mother’s Day” is especially trying and painful. We need to be mindful of them and support them with our loving kindness, affection and prayers.

Mary is truly the Mother of the Church. We pay her special honor and tribute this weekend as we do throughout the church year.

Dear Blessed Mother, please pray for all of our mothers! Happy Mother’s Day, Moms!

OUR DEACONS’ ANNIVERSARIES OF ORDINATION:

We are truly blessed with the presence of three deacons in our parish who faithfully serve our parish community. Each one of them is celebrating the anniversary of his ordination to the diaconate this month:

Dcn. Rick Brunner – May 21, 2005: 19th Anniversary of Ordination

Dcn. Chris Daniello – May 17, 2014: 10th Anniversary of Ordination

Dcn. John Horn – May 19, 2018: 6th Anniversary of Ordination

Please keep all of our deacons in your prayers, especially, on their anniversaries. Thank you, Dcn. Rick, Dcn. Chris and Dcn. John! We are so grateful for your loving service to our parish and the church.

WEEKLY READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

7th Sunday of Easter

May 12, 2024

First Reading:

"Therefore, it is necessary that one of the men who accompanied us the whole time the Lord Jesus came and went among us, beginning from the baptism of John until the day on which he was taken up from us, become with us a witness to his resurrection." (Acts 1:21-22)

Psalm:

The Lord has set his throne in heaven. (Ps 103)

Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

God is love, and whoever remains in love remains in God and God in him. (1 Jn 4:16)

Gospel:

"Holy Father, keep them in your name that you have given me, so that they may be one just as we are one." (Jn 17:11)

Gospel Meditation

A few months ago, I had the singular privilege of a private meeting with Pope Francis. We were a small group of pastors, composed largely of non-Catholics. The Holy Father wished to discuss our work for Christian unity. The phrase I remember him saying with greatest frequency was: Tutti dentro. It means, "Everyone in." He clearly wanted us to emphasize that the Church is made for the whole human race, not a select few. At the center of his concern was unity. We are all brothers and sisters, he said multiple times. The Church's primary longing is for everyone to join Her.

This longing is at the heart of this Ascension feast day. We hear the longest recorded prayer of the one whom Pope Francis represents. Jesus' concern is unity, praying to the Father, "that they may be one, even as we are one" (John 17:11). The deep unity of all people in Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit is what Jesus most desires. It is what he ascends to accomplish.

Do we have this same burning desire in our hearts, too? Or do we see Christian unity as an unrealizable dream? Or worse, as something that threatens our own narrow tribal interests? This feast is a wonderful time to consider our attitude toward Christian unity, and to commit to do whatever we can to foster it. It is the Pope's desire because it is that of Jesus — and it should be ours, too.
Father John Muir

Live the Liturgy—Inspiration for the week

In his prayer to the Father, Jesus says it aloud to remind us, always and forever: if we belong to Him, we belong to the truth. Lord, may those words ring in our ears as we go into the world as Christ taught us. We are consecrated to the truth.

A Quick Journey Through the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church. Presenter Jeff Cavins shows you how to read the Bible so that you can actually understand it. Aided by the unique color-coded Bible Timeline® Chart, which arranges the key people, places, and events of Scripture in chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan. This eight-session study program includes video presentations that explore all twelve time periods of The Bible Timeline Chart.

Wednesday evenings in Delaney Hall at 7:00pm for this 8-week course. Starting Wednesday July 10th running until August 28th. Use the link below or scan the QR code with your phone to order the book from Ascension Press (order the book for $25—$30) <https://ascensionpress.com/collections/unlocking-the-mystery>
