THE KINGDOM OF GOD:

In order to explain the Kingdom of God Jesus used parables. The use of parables spoke directly to their experience and made it easier for everyone to have a better understanding of what he was teaching them.

PARABLE OF THE MUSTARD SEED:

Jesus speaks about the mustard seed in this Sunday's Gospel. It is the smallest of seeds and grows into the largest of bushes so the birds of the air can take advantage of its shade.

Scripture scholar John Pilch suggests that the mustard seed plant is like a weed that takes over a garden. Anyone listening to this parable might at first be confused as to the point that Jesus is trying to make. Some would make the correct connection that as the mustard seed plants grow quickly and spread dramatically, so too will the Kingdom of God spread and make its presence known over the four corners of the world.

We can see clearly today how Jesus spoke correctly about the growth of the Kingdom of God. The Gospel has been preached to the four corners of the world and the work continues as the church never loses sight of her responsibility to spread the good news.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY IN SPREADING THE GOSPEL:

The Second Vatican Council teaches that the primary responsibility of the Church is the work of evangelization, spreading the Gospel. As members of the church, we share in this responsibility. Many members of the Church do this by the manner in which they live their lives and the values they hold.

Pope Benedict XVI stated that the church needs "to preach the Gospel in a manner which is both understandable and acceptable to the people of today." That's where you and I come in. Of course, in order to do this, we need to understand the message of the Gospel before we can share it. That is why I am encouraging you to participate in the Adult Faith Formation courses offered for this purpose.

ADULT FAITH FORMATION COURSES:

Here at St. James we are offering a number of courses to assist in preparing adults for this responsibility. Please take advantage of these opportunities. They will increase your knowledge and help you feel more comfortable speaking about your beliefs.

I invite you to consider participating in our Alpha Program. It's a great way to deepen your faith as you become more comfortable with sharing your faith with other adults.

May the Holy Spirit inspire you to grow in your faith and to share that with others!

WEEKLY READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

June 16, 2024

11th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading:

And all the trees of the field shall know that I, the LORD, bring low the high tree, lift high the lowly tree, wither up the green tree, and make the withered tree bloom. (Ez 17:24)

Psalm:

Lord, it is good to give thanks to you. (Ps 92)

Second Reading:

Therefore, we aspire to please him, whether we are at home or away. (2 Cor 5:9)

Gospel:

"It is like a mustard seed that, when it is sown in the ground, is the smallest of all the seeds on the earth. But once it is sown, it springs up and becomes the largest of plants." (Mk 4:31-32)

Gospel Meditation:

My mother and father fell in love with each other rather quickly. It was only a span of two months between their first meeting and quiet betrothal. They waited for a significant period of time before going public with the happy news. It simply wasn't time. Love's strength and speed can sprout scandal in public. Until the big reveal, they gave the outside world only little hints, gestures, and riddles.

Something like this — but even more wonderful — is at play when Mark says of Jesus, "he did not speak to them without a parable, but to his disciples in private he explained everything." Jesus is the long-awaited messiah-king, but his identity as the Lord and Son of God is so new, surprising, and scandalous to human ears that the big reveal would have to wait. Thus, his parables are riddles, meant to conceal more than reveal. Even the disciples — who hear things explained directly — barely grasp what he is up to. It's only at the cross that Jesus' love for Israel and the world is explicitly revealed. Until then, much stays hidden and comes in riddles.

So it goes with us, too. I wonder at times why doesn't the Lord just speak to us directly in prayer about what we should do, or how to fix our problems. Or why doesn't he reveal himself directly to powerful leaders who are slow to act? Why does he allow life so often to be confounding, contradictory, and crazy? Because it simply isn't time yet. One glorious day, it will be. Until then, he teaches us in riddles, and only sometimes explains them.

Father John Muir

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the week

Faith can start small, Jesus tells us — as small as the tiniest seed on earth. But it's up to us to surround that seed with good, nutritious soil, to nourish it with sunlight and water, and to tend to it lovingly so that it will grow.

A Quick Journey Through the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church. Presenter Jeff Cavins shows you how to read the Bible so that you can actually understand it. Aided by the unique color-coded Bible Timeline® Chart, which arranges the key people, places, and events of Scripture in chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan. This eight-session study program includes video presentations that explore all twelve time periods of The Bible Timeline Chart. Wednesday evenings in Delaney Hall at 7:00pm for this 8-week course. Starting Wednesday July 10th running until August 28th. Use the link below or scan the QR code with your phone to order the book from Ascension Press (order the book for $25—$30)

In the Gospel, Jesus says: "This is how it is with the reign of God. A man scatters seed on the ground. He goes to bed and gets up day after day. Through it all the seed sprouts and grows without his knowing how it happens." Through your almsgiving you are sowing seeds that grow far greater than you know. The coins placed in the St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box bring Christ love and compassion to the poor.

Question: Why do the Gospels differ in their details? I was surprised to learn that not all of the Gospels tell the same stories, for example, the Nativity. Doesn't this take away from their credibility?

Q & A

Answer: Take any event that happens, from family trips to national politics and ask two or three different people to explain what happened. You will get a different version of the same story. People tend to tell the story from their perspective, and past experience shades what we recall and how we recall it. The Gospel writers are no different. Each one tells the story of Jesus from their own perspective. Versions differ in some details, not because one is true and the other is not, but because each Gospel writer, or Evangelist, has a different theological point to communicate as well as a different audience for whom he is writing. He picks and chooses the details of his Gospel based on what message he is preaching, what his audience may already know, and what message they need to hear. The various details of the Gospels point more to their authenticity as a record of the church's experience and understanding of Jesus.
