DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST,

CONGRATULATIONS FR. BENJAMIN:

Last weekend Fr. Benjamin received word that his assignment to serve here at St. James has been extended until June of 2025. I was so grateful to hear this news as he has become an important part of our staff of priests. He received a hearty round of applause as this was announced at all the Masses last weekend.

I thank you for your wonderful support of Fr. Benjamin. I know that he is happy to be staying with us. He continues to expand the ways that he can offer priestly service to our parish.

Congratulations, Fr. Benjamin! We are happy to have you with us.

OUR DAILY 12:10 PM MASS:

With the news that Fr. Benjamin is staying with us, we are able to continue the daily 12:10PM Mass throughout the remainder of 2024.

I know that members of our parish and people from our neighboring parishes will be so happy to receive this news. We priests are delighted to provide this daily Mass for you.

BABY BOTTLE CAMPAIGN:

The Baby Bottle Campaign that we participate in is one of your favorite charities. Your financial support of pregnant mothers is so appreciated by them.

I would like to share with you part of the letter that I recently received from Gloria Schreiber, the Chief Executive Officer of the Life Center of Long Island:

"On behalf of the Life Center of Long Island I would like to thank you and the parishioners of St. James RC Church for participating in our Baby Bottle Campaign. I am pleased to share that the Campaign rose over $8,077.83.

This generosity allows that Life Center to flourish and provide the services needed by so many each year, including those from your community. Thank you for bringing hope, healing, and new life to those mothers and fathers in the midst of an unexpected pregnancy.

In the past 2 years, we have saved 102 babies lives and distributed the equivalent of over 1.2 million dollars in essential baby's needs including diapers, wipes, formula, clothing, car seats etc. We are supporting these families with free material aid until their children reach two years of age thanks to your parish and our local communities."

I wanted to share this letter with you so that you see the positive impact that your generosity is having by participating in the Baby Bottle Campaign. Thank you everyone!

Fr. John

June 9, 2024

10th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading:

"I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers." (Gn 3:15)

Psalm:

With the Lord there is mercy, and fullness of redemption. (Ps 130)

Second Reading:

Since we have the same spirit of faith, according to what is written, I believed, therefore I spoke, we too believe and therefore we speak. (2 Cor 4:13)

Gospel:

And if Satan has risen up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand; that is the end of him. (Mk 3:26)

Gospel Meditation

Jesus asks us a stunning question this week: "How can Satan cast out Satan?" To enter into this question opens up the often-hidden dynamics of what Jesus has done and is constantly doing. If we're honest, our response to some degree is: "How else can we cast him out? Satan is precisely how we cast out Satan!" But Jesus wants us to see this finally does not work. Here's what I mean.

Satanas names the demonic mechanism by which we render wholeness through accusation. When we face a threat, we seek something to protect us (e.g., more money, social status, security, power, etc.). Rivals inevitably arise for these things and so do tensions. Accusation presents itself. "I'll never be successful unless I get ahead of that guy." "She's already trying to get ahead of me." "That group of immigrants is trying to take our jobs." And so on. The accusation grows into a fear-inducing threat — things will break apart — no, they already are! Hurry! We inflict violence on the victim and — as if by magic — peace ensues. For a time. Soon fresh accusations are required to hold new chaos at bay, until there is no community left at all. This is essentially humankind's sad history in a nutshell.

Jesus' cross and resurrection unmasks this broken system of "casting out Satan by Satan" and ushers in a new one he calls "the Kingdom of God." He reveals that the dynamic of accusation is nothing compared to his power of divine mercy and love. The cross (and not Satan) is the real power to tear down strongholds of sin and cast out Satan. This is why he describes himself as the "stronger man who ties up the strong man to plunder his house." This week let's notice the ways we "cast out Satan by Satan," and then refuse to do it anymore. Because in the long run, that divided house cannot stand.

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the week

God's family is not a country club — you don't need the right pedigree or the proper connections to join. Christ claims everyone who does the will of God. Let us call upon the Holy Spirit to fill our hearts, that we may live in kinship with Christ.

“Whoever does the will of God is my brother and sister and mother.”

JESUS (MARK 3:35)

A Quick Journey Through the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church.

Presenter Jeff Cavins shows you how to read the Bible so that you can actually understand it. Aided by the unique color-coded Bible Timeline® Chart, which arranges the key people, places, and events of Scripture in chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan. This eight-session study program includes video presentations that explore all twelve time periods of The Bible Timeline Chart. Wednesday evenings in Delaney Hall at 7:00pm for this 8-week course. Starting Wednesday July 10th running until August 28th. Use the link below or scan the QR code with your phone to order the book from Ascension Press (order the book for $25—$30) <https://ascensionpress.com/collections/unlocking-the-mystery>

Question: How do I bring God into the work of my daily life?

Answer: One way concerns behavior. Start with an examination of conscience. Look at areas where you tend to struggle to imitate Christ at work. Do you gossip? Does brimming frustration become impatience at home? Pick one sin you struggle with, then choose a virtue to strengthen that area. If you tend to speak poorly of your co-workers, resolve to stop and to say one kind thing a day instead. Another way relates to perspective, particularly your perspective of others. Jesus' incarnation reminds us of the value of every human being. Jesus is God, and each of us is created in God's image. When you encounter another person, you have an opportunity to see God in a new place and a new way — in that person in front of you. Genuinely listen to them and be present to their concerns. Loving your neighbor is loving God! Our relationship with God and the love He inspires in our hearts shouldn't remain only at church on Sunday. We can — and should — let our faith animate our lives!
