What's Happening in Faith Formation??

In today's Gospel we hear that Jesus felt pity for the people saying they "were like sheep without a shepherd..." he then began to teach them!

Our Parish Children need to be shepherded.....As faith-filled people of St. James' Parish we must step up to fulfill our baptismal promises to spread the Good News of Jesus. What better way to do that then by volunteering to become a catechist in our Faith Formation Process.

If you are a teacher, teacher's aide, parent, faith filled Catholic who is willing to help us in our endeavor to build a relationship between God and God's children won't you consider teaching in our Process.

We are still looking for teachers on:

Tuesday 4:15-5:30pm

Level 1

Level 5 (in order to open a 2nd class)

Wednesday 4:15-5:30pm

Level 5, 6, 7 (in order to open a 2nd class)

Wednesday 7:00-8:15pm

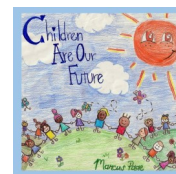

Level 2 (Older Communion class—3, 4, 5th grade students)

Level 7

Thursday 4:15-5:30pm

Level 2

As the great sage Hillel once said, "...if not you then who?" Won't you please consider sharing your faith with the young people of our parish family?

WEEKLY READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

July 21, 2024

16th Sunday in Ordinary Time

First Reading:

I will appoint shepherds for them who will shepherd them so that they need no longer fear and tremble; and none shall be missing, says the LORD. (Jer 23:4)

Psalm:

The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want. (Ps 23)

Second Reading:

In Christ Jesus you who once were far off have become near by the blood of Christ. For he is our peace, he who made both one and broke down the dividing wall of enmity. (Eph 2:13-14)

Gospel:

When he disembarked and saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, for they were like sheep without a shepherd; and he began to teach them many things. (Mk 10:34)

Gospel Meditation:

Burnout. Recent studies suggest that roughly two-thirds of doctors and nurses have signs of it. You probably know what burnout is: long-term stress leading to emotional exhaustion and a lack of a sense of personal accomplishment. Burnout can threaten anyone who tries to seriously serve and love others. How does our faith inform this challenging experience, and how do we find refreshment?

The apostles face something like burnout this week in Mark 6. They are run down from their missionary work, and Jesus says, "Come away by yourselves to a lonely place, and rest a while." For them, and for us, it takes humility to intentionally rest. It means the world can go on without us. It stings our pride to admit God is necessary and we are not. Choosing to leave our good work to be with him — whatever the cost — is an act of humble faith. And that trust in God begins to revive us.

But there's more to it. Hilariously, Mark tells us that throngs of needy people find out where the apostles are going and arrive ahead of them. Imagine the exasperation of the burnt-out apostles. "Can we please get a minute to ourselves? This is not healthy!" And Jesus seems to encourage the boundary violation by telling his frayed followers to feed the crowd. Look: once we move into humble rest, he calls us to more work, because we are made for love, not for rest. But Jesus does the vast bulk of the labor. He himself is the one who multiplies the small offering until everyone is satisfied.

What finally gives our heart rest isn't more vacation time. It's experiencing the super abundant generosity of God for us and those whom we serve.

Father John Muir

Live the Liturgy:

The crowds continue to follow Jesus, and when he sees them, he cannot help but be filled with love for them. Let us take our cue from these devoted disciples of Mark's Gospel, and never, ever stop seeking our Lord.

Question: Where does the money go that is collected each week at Church?

Q & A

Answer: This is a good question! Every parish has financial obligations, including the basic operation of the buildings, salaries, maintenance, and improvements. In addition, there are schools to support, programs to run, charities to be funded, and operational expenses like hosts and wine for Mass, music books, vestments, and so on. In some cases, cemeteries and other buildings need attention. Finally, there is the diocesan assessment that each parish pays to help run the diocese and the support services provided to each parish.

Most parishes manage to get by with the collection, a few fundraisers and endowments. But contrary to popular opinion, cash flow is also a problem, and many parishes operate in the red. The Finance Committee is responsible for assisting the pastor in fiscal management, and good stewardship is the basis for successful programs.
