Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

THE FEAST OF THE HOLY FAMILY OF JESUS, MARY AND JOSEPH:

We continue our celebration of Christmas with this feast honoring the Holy Family.

Years ago, I remember listing to a homily during which the priest stated, What makes the Holy Family "holy" is that Jesus is at the center of it."

I never forgot that simple statement. It's something I have come to believe whether we are speaking about the ties we share as a natural family or the family of the Church. Yes, what makes us holy is the presence of Jesus among us.

Since Christmas is the celebration of the birth of "Emmanuel," or "God among us," it is easy to see why this feast fits so well with the Christmas Season.

The website "ChurchYear.net" explains, "Devotion to the Holy Family is a recent development, but one that naturally grows out of a love for Jesus and his family. The cult of the Holy Family grew in popularity in the 17th century, and several religious congregations have been founded under this title. The Holy Family also became portrayed in popular art of the period. On October 26, 1921, the Congregation of Rites (under Pope Benedict XV) inserted the Feast of the Holy Family into the Latin Rite general calendar. Until then it had been celebrated regionally. . . . Popes before and including Benedict XV (especially Leo XIII) promoted the feast as a way to counter the breakdown of the family unit."

Today, the family unit is undergoing dramatic changes. Enjoying a family meal together is becoming more and more scarce. When families do eat together it is becoming more common that growing numbers have their cell phones at the ready, sending and receiving text messages to people not there. What about being present to those sitting around the table with you? Something that would have been considered impolite and rude has become commonplace.

May the Holy Family of Jesus, Mary and Joseph serve as an example of family life to inspire and guide us!

THE CHILDREN'S RECENT CELEBRATION OF THE CHRISTMAS PAGEANT:

I want to express my gratitude to Jillian Vicinanza, our Director of Music, together with the other adults who assisted her, with the Christmas Pageant that was held on Saturday, December 14th.

A special word of thanks to the children who participated in the pageant. It was so important that you reminded us of the significance of Christmas, when we celebrate the birth of Jesus, the Son of God.

Thank you! Thank you! Thank You!

F. John

WEEKLY READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

The Holy Family

December 29, 2024

First Reading:

"I prayed for this child, and the LORD granted my request. Now I, in turn, give him to the LORD; as long as he lives, he shall be dedicated to the LORD." (1 Sm 1:27-28)

Psalm:

Blessed are they who dwell in your house, O Lord. (Ps 84)

Second Reading:

Beloved, we are God's children now; what we shall be has not yet been revealed. (1 Jn 3:2)

Gospel:

After three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers. (Lk 2:46)

Gospel Meditation

As a first-time pastor in a parish, I received a phone call one afternoon from a young married couple, "Father, our 2-year-old son drowned in our pool this morning. We are at the hospital. Please help us." I sped over. The little boy was gone, his body cold, slightly blue, laid out on a bed. His parents were distraught and in shock. For the next few years, I walked with the couple along their difficult and painful road. They openly shared with me how they were often tempted to blame and accuse each other for the loss. And yet, by God's grace, their love for each grew stronger and deeper as the years went by.

The Holy Family was not without its pain and loss, either. Luke tells us, after losing their twelve-year-old son, Joseph and Mary "after three days found him in the temple area, sitting among the teachers..." (Luke 2:46). We don't know specifically what those three days were like for them except for what Mary says: "Your father and I have been looking for you anxiously." The three days of his absence foreshadow his death and burial. His finding in the temple is a kind of resurrection for his family. They had to learn, again and again, that their family was becoming a place where death and resurrection was not only accepted but welcomed and celebrated. But surely they deeply felt the dangerous agony of their loss — just like every couple who has lost a child.

What losses in your experience of family still cause you anxiety? In what ways has God's presence seemingly vanished in your family? Will you keep searching for Jesus? Remember, he will rise and be found. Your family may be suffering, but when he is found, it will be stronger than ever before.

Father John Muir

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the week

For three days, Mary and Joseph search and worry before finding Jesus in the temple. "Didn't you know where I was?" he says to them, in so many words. We, too, look for Jesus. We, too, know where to find him. Let us never forget and never despair.

PRAYER TO THE HOLY FAMILY

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, in you we contemplate the splendour of true love, to you we turn with trust.

Holy Family of Nazareth, grant that our families too may be places of communion and prayer, authentic schools of the Gospel and small domestic Churches.

Holy Family of Nazareth, may families never again experience violence, rejection and division: may all who have been hurt or scandalized find ready comfort and healing.

Holy Family of Nazareth, may the approaching Synod of Bishops make us once more mindful of the sacredness and inviolability of the family, and its beauty in God's plan.

Jesus, Mary and Joseph, graciously hear our prayer:

Amen.

What's Happening In Faith Formation??

Today, we celebrate the Feast of the Holy Family. We ask Jesus, Mary and Joseph to help us to be holy like them. We remember that being faithful to God's will is what makes us a holy people.

Like the Holy Family, we have heartache in our lives, we are not always happy and content but we know that in our times of adversity, sorrow and struggle our God is by our side and we need only place our trust in him as Mary, Joseph and Jesus did as they lived their lives as a family.

A Quick Journey Through the Bible

Many Catholics want to read the Bible because they know it is God's Word, but they give up because it seems so complicated. Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible helps you get the "big picture" by showing how fourteen narrative books of the Bible tell the complete story from Adam and Eve to Christ and the Church. Presenter Jeff Cavins shows you how to read the Bible so that you can actually understand it. Aided by the unique color-coded Bible Time Line® Chart, which arranges the key people, places, and events of Scripture in chronological order, Unlocking the Mystery of the Bible will help you discover the story of salvation history and understand how you fit into God's plan. This eight-session study program includes video presentations that explore all twelve time periods of The Bible Timeline Chart. Tuesday evenings in Delaney Hall at 7:00pm for this 8-week course. Starting Tuesday January 7th running until February 25th. Use the link below or scan the QR code with your phone to order the book from Ascension Press (order the book for $25—$30)

Question: July 26 is the feast of Joachim and Anna. Who are they and what do we know about them?

Q & A

Answer: Joachim and Anna are the parents of Mary, the mother of Jesus, yet there is absolutely no biblical reference to them whatsoever. So where do we get their names, and what is their story? Their names are found in an apocryphal (hidden) gospel known as "The Infancy Gospel of James." Apocryphal, or hidden gospels, consist of accounts of Jesus' life that were ultimately not accepted as inspired works, and thus were not included in the Bible. However, they sometimes captured the Christian imagination, spilling into the devotional dimension of the community. James' infancy gospel begins with the parents of Mary and their desire for a child. In their prayer and petitions to God, they are heard and given the blessings of a child, whom they named Mary. While we have no idea who Mary's parents really were, the fact that we celebrate the feast of Joachim and Anna indicates that the bond of family love is important in the Christian life. In honoring the grandparents of Jesus we really proclaim our faith in the Incarnation--God becoming human!
