Parish Mission Statement

Saint James is a parish community, whose members are called through Baptism, to be intentional disciples. We are strengthened by the Eucharist and committed to serve God under the guidance of His Holy Spirit. As people devoted to Jesus' teachings, we value on-going faith formation, Christian outreach and the growth and development of our parish.

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST:

SEPTUAGESIMA SUNDAY:

The Third Sunday before Lent or the Ninth Sunday before Easter was referred to as Septuagesima Sunday for decades. This refers to the acknowledgement that Easter is roughly seventy days away. It served as a reminder that the Season of Lent is coming soon and that we should start to make preparation to celebrate Lent in a holy and fruitful way.

APLHA IS COMING SOON:

We have been announcing the start of Alpha over the past two weeks. Two weekends ago, several parishioners who participated in Alpha spoke about their experience of the program. They did this with the hope that you in turn will decide to experience Alpha yourselves.

Last weekend two short films about Alpha were shown to provide you with additional information about this wonderful spiritual program. Yes, Alpha has the ability to deepen one's experience of the presence of God in your life, while inviting you to become more involved in our parish and build your sense of community, first with the other participants and ultimately with the wider community.

This weekend, four other participants will share their experiences of Alpha with you. Again, it is their hope that what they share will inspire you to decide "I think that I will try Alpha. It sounds like a very good program."

MY PERSONAL INVITATION TO YOU:

I am asking you to take a seriously consider participating in Alpha, which will begin on Tuesday, March 11th. Since the purpose of Lent is to prepare for the "Renewal of our Baptismal Promises" on Easter Sunday, the Alpha Program will assist with your preparations.

If you are the type that usually wouldn't give an offer like this a second thought then this invitation is meant especially for you. Maybe this will require you to step beyond your comfort zone. I believe your experience of Alpha will make you say, "This was a good decision. I have learned so much. Alpha has helped deepen my faith and feel closer to the wider parish community of St. James."

TO REGISTER INTO ALPHA:

Please consult page 10, which will guide you through the registration process. I sincerely look forward to your joining Alpha. I know you will truly be glad you decided to participate.

Sacramental Life

SACRAMENT OF ANOINTING OF THE SICK:

This Sacrament for those suffering serious illness or surgery is available by contacting one of the parish priests at the Parish Office (731-3710) during office hours. In case of serious danger or sudden accident, please call any time. One may also ask for this Sacrament before or after Mass.

BAPTISMS:

The Sacrament of Baptism is administered every other Sunday at 2:00 PM in the church. Please call the Parish Office (731-3710) for registration and scheduling information.

BECOMING A CATHOLIC (RCIA):

St. James Parish welcomes any non-Catholic who seeks to enter the Catholic Church or baptized Catholics of any age who have not yet received the other Sacraments. Please call the Parish Center (731-3710).

MARRIAGES:

Those wishing to be married at St. James should call the Parish Office (731-3710) to arrange an appointment with one of the parish clergy. Please allow 6 months at least for the necessary preparations. Please do not enter into any other wedding commitments prior to having your wedding date and time confirmed by the Parish.

PARISHIONERS IN THE HOSPITAL:

If a family member is in the hospital, please inform the Parish Office to have them placed on the sick list for prayers.

PARISH MEMBERSHIP:

We warmly welcome all new parishioners to our parish family. Registration forms are available at the Parish Center Office.

WEEKLY DEVOTIONS:

Miraculous Medal Novena & Rosary for Life - Mondays 2 PM in the Chapel.

Rosary - Monday through Saturday following the 8 AM Mass in the Church.

Our Lady of the Rosary Italian Prayer Group - Fridays at 11 AM in the Chapel (except during July and August - resumes Sept. 1st)

WEEKLY READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

7th Sunday in Ordinary Time

February 23, 2025

First Reading:

"Today, though the LORD delivered you into my grasp, I would not harm the LORD's anointed." (1 Sm 26:23)

Psalm:

The Lord is kind and merciful. (Ps 103)

Second Reading:

Just as we have borne the image of the earthly one, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly one. (1 Cor 15:49)

Gospel:

"Be merciful, just as your Father is merciful." (Jn Lk 6:36)

Gospel Meditation

One of my favorite new singers/songwriters is Noah Kahan. I'm a little biased because, like me, he is originally from Vermont. In a fine song entitled "Stick Season," he sings of his hope to "cancel out the darkness I inherited from dad." This lyric articulates his painful recognition of a dark spiritual "inheritance" from his father, and his hope to be free of it. We all inherit some degree of evil from our earthly forebears. It's easy to feel doomed to repeat their darknesses.

But we're not so doomed, thank God. This week's Gospel proclaims this. Whatever good or bad we received from our parents, we have a more definitive and perfect inheritance in God. Jesus commands us, "Be merciful just as your Father is merciful" (Luke 6:36). We have a perfect Father in heaven and are destined to inherit and reflect that perfect and merciful love. We have an inheritance of light, not darkness, and thus a whole new possibility of magnanimous love. Like any inheritance, this is a free gift to us.

What are we destined to repeat? Not the darkness of our earthly parents. We are destined to be a reflection of God's life. Jesus liberates us from the inevitability of repeating whatever evils and imperfections are in our familial or cultural upbringings. It's time to claim that perfect inheritance.

Father John Muir

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the week

Jesus' message today is one of radical generosity and abundant mercy, and it scandalized the people of his time. It shook them to their core. It should do the same for us. Are we ready to live as Jesus lived? Are we ready to offer love in the face of hate?

NO GREATER LOVE

No Greater Love: A Biblical Walk Through Christ's Passion is more than a Bible study. It is a biblical pilgrimage that reveals Christ's amazing love for us. This study will help you understand Christ's passion in a new way. The "head knowledge" you gain will help you grow in "heart knowledge" as you follow up on what you have learned. The Bible will always remain a mystery, though, and that is part of the beauty of it: We can never exhaust the treasures of Scripture. Fortunately for us, the Bible is not a subject to master; it is a place to encounter the living Word of God.

We will be running this program 7:00pm-8:30pm on Thursdays during Lent:
March 6, 13, 20, 27, April 3, April 10.

As you begin this journey, here is what you will need to get started:
please purchase the book
"NO GREATER LOVE A BIBLICAL WALK THROUGH CHRIST'S PASSION" from Ascension Press.

Sunday Family Time

Families, have you and your children ever left Mass with things you might not have understood or have questions about church and your faith and felt there was no right time or person to ask? On the 2nd and 4th Sundays following the 10am Family Mass, Father John and Deacon Chris will be available to talk with parents and their children.

Time: Immediately following 10am Family Mass

Meeting Place: Pews located near the statue of St. James

Let's keep family conversations going and support each other on our faith journeys which keeps St. James community growing.

Question: Is Ash Wednesday a holy day of obligation?

Q & A

Answer: Despite the often packed churches, you may be surprised to hear that the answer is no! Holy days of obligation commemorate a particular event (such as the birth of Christ at Christmas) or celebrate particular people (such as Mary's Immaculate Conception or the feast of All Saints). Ash Wednesday is a day of penance, fasting, and abstinence to begin the season of Lent. In a sense, it focuses on a concept rather than something particular and concrete. Of course, repentance ought to be reflected in particular, concrete ways! That's one of the reasons that attending Mass on Ash Wednesday is a very good idea. It marks the beginning of a solemn season of penance. Despite all its comparisons to the desert, Lent can be very fruitful for our spiritual growth! Beginning this season with the celebration of Mass and the reception of ashes is a sign of our commitment to God and to spiritual growth.
