DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST:

COMMUNION UNDER BOTH SPECIES, RECEIVING BOTH THE CONSECRATED HOST AND CONSECRATED WINE:

Over the past several months individuals have asked if we are going to permit the reception of Holy Communion with the consecrated wine, as we did prior to the pandemic. In fact, at a recent priest/deacon meeting we discussed this topic.

I told them that I was open to bring back that custom of permitting people to receive Holy Communion with the consecrated wine, which we believe as Catholics is transformed into the Blood of Christ through the power of the Holy Spirit and the words of consecration spoken by the priest, "This is my Body. . . This is my Blood." With these words the hosts and wine are transformed into the Body and Blood of Jesus, under the sacramental appearance of bread and wine.

We wondered how many parishioners would be interested in resuming this holy practice. Do we have a sufficient number of Eucharistic Ministers to accomplish this? We thought that perhaps we could look towards the Feast of Corpus Christi which falls on June 22nd to bring this back to St. James.

Our present thought was that we would initiate this practice at the 4:00 PM Saturday Vigil Mass and the 10:00 AM Family Mass.

Recall that the Catholic Church teaches that when a person receives the Body of Christ he or she are also receiving the Blood of Christ. However, the command in the Mass is that "we take and eat and take and drink." The sacramental and liturgical sense is that we more fully fulfill this command by "eating the Body of Christ and drinking His Blood."

In the coming weeks we will be exploring if this is the proper time to reintroduce this special practice. Again, do we have enough Eucharistic Ministers to accomplish this? We thought that the Feast of Corpus Christi would be a great weekend to reintroduce this since, in fact, we are focusing on the Body and Blood of Christ.

What are your thoughts? Would you like to see us bring back this holy practice? Would you choose to receive Holy Communion under both species, both the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ at Mass if it is offered?

OUR DEACONS' ANNIVERSARIES OF ORDINATION:

We are truly blessed with the presence of three deacons in our parish who faithfully serve our parish community. Each one of them is celebrating the anniversary of his ordination this week:

WEEKLY READINGS AND OBSERVANCES

5th Sunday of Easter

May 18, 2025

First Reading:

And when they arrived, they called the church together and reported what God had done with them and how he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.

(Acts 14:27)

Psalm:

I will praise your name for ever, my king and my God.
(Ps 145) Or: Alleluia.

Second Reading:

I heard a loud voice from the throne saying, "Behold, God's dwelling is with the human race. He will dwell with them and they will be his people and God himself will always be with them as their God." (Rv 21:4)

Gospel:

I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another.
(Jn 13:34)

Gospel Meditation

I've always found it amazing that Jesus never says to his disciples the straightforward and bumper stickery words "I love you" or "I will always love you" (a la Dolly Parton's song). Why doesn't Jesus say, "I love you"?

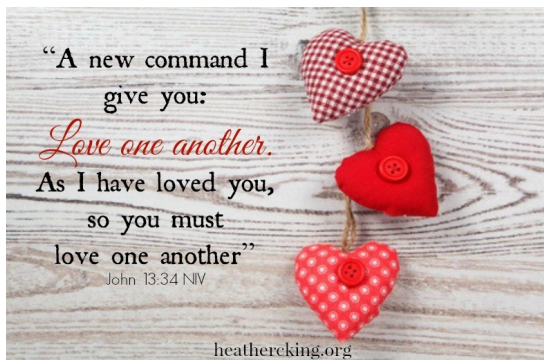

Well, actually he does, but in particular ways. He says, "As the Father loves me, so I love you" (John 15:9) thereby rooting his love for us in the space of the Holy Trinity. This week he commands, "Love another as I have loved you" (John 13:34). He presents his love for us as a completed action which continues into the present moment. How has he loved us? By becoming one of us, one with us, and finally giving his life for us in his suffering on the cross. We weren't there when he did that, but neither were his Apostles (except one). Still, that action is his great "I love you" to us.

His love is also hedged in a command: "Love one another." So how can we practically follow it? The great St. John XXIII wrote in his diary that each day he followed this rule: "Only for today, I will do one good deed and not tell anyone about it." The hidden nature of a good deed is a sign that it is truly loving. This week, take on St. John XXIII's practical method of following Jesus' great commandment of love. It's a splendid way to say, "I love you."

Father John Muir

Live the Liturgy - Inspiration for the week

If you love like me, Jesus tells his disciples, they will know you are mine. We shouldn't leave any room for doubt in the minds of each and every person we encounter. Let the whole world know: we love like Christ, and we belong to Christ.

FIRST CLASS RELICS OF ST. MARIA GORETTI AND ST. FRANCES XAVIER CABRINI, KNOWN AS MOTHER CABRINI:

One of our parishioners donated a First Class Relic of St. Maria Goretti and another of St. Frances Xavier Cabrini (Mother Cabrini). These relics are very small fragments of the bones of each saint.

It is his wish that we make these available to you, our parishioners, to use for private prayer and devotion. If you would like to do so, please contact the parish receptionist at (516) 731-3710, Ext. 118 or email the parish office at parishoffice@stjamesrcchurch.org.

Only one relic can be borrowed at a time from each person.

The relics can be picked up at the weekend Mass you attend and can be returned to the parish office the next Friday between 9:00 am and 4:00pm. You can return the relic earlier by bringing it to the parish center during regular office hours. Your name and phone number will be recorded so we know who has taken the relic for their private devotion.

Question: If God is good, why is there evil in the world?

Q & A

Answer: The problem of evil is perplexing. If God is all-powerful and all-good, why doesn't He stop bad things from happening? He must either not be all-powerful, or perhaps He's not very good after all. Human beings have faced the possibility of evil since the very beginning of our existence. In granting us free will, God gives us the ability to make free choices. God does not force us into moral perfection. We are not forced to love Him or to love our neighbor. We must make the decision ourselves. This means, of course, that we have the ability to choose against love. One small decision of selfishness, jealousy, or pride may not seem so bad. But every decision — good or bad — is like a stone dropped into a still pond. The ripples extend much farther than the original stone. When decisions against love begin to compound, they affect families, neighborhoods, and nations. This is all the more reason for Christians to be faithful to our baptismal call to love one another as Christ has loved us!
