A Note from the Pastor

DEAR BROTHERS & SISTERS IN CHRIST:

THOUGHT PROVOKING STATEMENTS: I came across these 15 sentences recently and wanted to share them with you. I think that they are thought provoking.

1. Fear doesn't stop death, it stops life.
2. If it costs you your peace, it's too expensive.
3. People only see the decisions you made, not the choices you had.
4. Never take criticism from someone you wouldn't take advice from.
5. The magic you are looking for is in the work you are avoiding.
6. Ships are safe in the harbor, but that's not what they're built for.
7. Ambition without action turns into anxiety.
8. To live a life most people don't, you must be willing to do what most people won't.
9. You can do anything, but not everything-focus.
10. If you want to make the wrong decision, ask everyone.
11. Those who don't move won't notice their chains.
12. It's okay to live a life most people don't understand.
13. If someone could only see your actions and not hear your words, what would they say your priorities are?
14. You can't have a new reality with an old mentality.
15. No risk, no story.

Do any of these speak to you personally?

VETERANS DAY: As I mentioned in my Pastor's Letter last weekend, this Tuesday, November 11th is Veterans Day. It is an important day to remember those living men and women who served in the military protecting the freedoms that we often take for granted. Please join on November 11th at the 9:00 AM Mass to pray for all our Veterans in thanksgiving for what they have secured for us, many times placing their lives at risk. "God bless all of our Veterans!"

A CHILD'S INNOCENT QUESTION: Attending a wedding for the first time, a little girl whispered to her mother, "Why is the bride dressed in white?" The mother replied, "Because white is the color of happiness, and today is the happiest day of her life." The child thought of this for a moment then said, "Then why is the groom wearing black?"

OUR THANKSGIVING DAY CELEBRATION: This year, as every year, we are celebrating Mass on Thanksgiving Day at 9:00 AM Mass. I know that Thanksgiving Day is a difficult day to get together because people are traveling or cooking. Would it be better in the future if we celebrate our Thanksgiving Mass on Wednesday, the night before? Please let me know your thoughts.

CATHOLIC CAMPAIGN FOR HUMAN DEVELOPMENT

Please be generous in next week's special collection for the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. In the United States, one in six people lives in poverty. With this collection, you support programs that address the causes of poverty and provide a sustainable future for those struggling across the country. In addition, 25% of the funds we collect will remain in our diocese to fund local antipoverty projects. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this collection and work on the margins. More information about the Campaign for Human Development can be found at www.usccb.org/cchd/collection.

In observance of Veteran's Day, all parish center offices will be closed on Tuesday, November 11th, 2025.

There will be one Mass that day at 9:00am.

Our heartfelt thanks to all our parishioners for your continued support of our food pantry.

In anticipation of Thanksgiving, we are collecting the following to be included in each Thanksgiving bag:

Canned vegetables, canned fruit, potatoes, cranberry sauce, corn muffin mix, canned yams, gravy, stuffing and desserts.

Due to the lack of freezer space, we are requesting gift cards to purchase the turkeys. Gift cards can be put in the collection basket or brought to the parish center office.

In addition, the pantry needs mayonnaise, sugar-coated cereal, boxed milk, juices, flour, sugar, coffee, oil, rice, napkins and baby wipes.

We are thankful to all of you for your generosity so that we can all have a blessed holiday.

November 9: Dedication of the Lateran Basilica in Rome

In today's Gospel, Jesus promises that if the temple is destroyed, He will raise it up again in three days. This is the true hope He offers. When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you give a sign of hope to your neighbors who have nothing. If you or someone you know needs help, please remind them the St. Vincent de Paul Society is here to help. We offer assistance in many forms; financial, spiritual, or help with navigating the intricacies of our society, please email us at: Saintjames saintvincentdepaul@gmail.com or call 516-735-8895. Thank you.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

When I was 22, I entered St. Peter's Basilica for the first time. It floored me. I could hardly take it in, its grandeur, majestic arches, vibrant colors, and the light that danced through its high windows. Somehow, amidst such splendor, I felt an overwhelming sense of belonging, as if I had finally come home.

Jesus reorients how we Catholics see sacred buildings. In today's Gospel he says, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up" (John 2:13-22). His riddle implies, shockingly, that his own body is now the fundamental dwelling place of God and humanity. The temple in Jerusalem has been superseded.

In our churches today — whether they mirror the basilica's grandeur or embrace humble simplicity — we experience architectural symbols of Christ's risen body. It is no accident we call them "churches": they make visible in brick-and-mortar Christ's body which is made up of the living stones we call Christians. Each church building, like St. John Lateran in Rome, or St. Peter's, or any other, is meant to be a vibrant sign of Christ's resurrected body. We should cherish and protect our churches as places where heaven touches earth, where we, as a community, are raised to the fullness of life in Christ.

Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY

"You are the temple of God," Paul tells us. But in today's Gospel we see how easily even temple areas become corrupted. Jesus, purge the greed and selfishness from our hearts. Make them fit dwellings for your Holy Spirit.

Question: Can Catholics be cremated?

Q & A

Answer: As the practice of cremation becomes more and more common, it's important to know what the Church asks of families who have chosen this for a loved one who has died. As the US Bishops observe on their website, "Ideally, if a family chooses cremation, the cremation would take place some time after the Funeral Mass, so that there can be an opportunity for the Vigil for the Deceased in the presence of the body." However, if cremation takes place before the Funeral Mass, the cremated remains can be present at the Funeral Mass and the appendix to the Order of Christian Funerals provides adaptations for the texts and rituals that are part of the Funeral Mass and the Committal. The primary concern is that the cremated remains should be treated with the same respect given to any human remains. The Order of Christian Funerals instructs, "This includes the use of a worthy vessel to contain the ashes, the manner in which they are carried, and the care and attention to appropriate placement and transport, and the final disposition. The cremated remains should be buried in a grave or entombed in a mausoleum or columbarium. The practice of scattering cremated remains on the sea, from the air, or on the ground, or keeping cremated remains on the home of a relative or friend of the deceased are not the reverent disposition that the Church requires" (no. 417). It is becoming more and more common for parishes or diocese-sponsored cemeteries to include columbaria to house cremated remains in a way that respects Church teaching, allowing family and friends the opportunity to honor the remains of the one they have lost with dignity, reverence, and care.
