A Note from the Pastor

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST:

THE CLOSE OF THE CHRISTMAS SEASON: Last Sunday, we concluded the Christmas Season with the Celebration of the Baptism of the Lord. We now move on to the season called Ordinary Time for the next several weeks. On Wednesday, February 18th, we will begin Lent. But before I begin talking about Lent, I would like to share the following thoughts on the Christmas Season and its Liturgies.

THE CHRISTMAS SEASON: The overriding thought I have each Christmas Season is the gradual listing of those who give witness to the belief that the infant born in Bethlehem is truly the Son of God.

The first witnesses are the angels who sing his praises at his birth, “Glory to God in the highest and peace to His people on earth.” Shepherds taking care of their sheep witness the angels’ message and make their way to Bethlehem to acknowledge the birth of the Newborn King.

The following weekend we celebrated the Adoration of the Magi. They witnessed the bright star and determined that it indicated that the new King of Israel was born. When they arrived at the home of the Holy Family, they did him homage, giving him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh, representing their belief that he was a “priest, prophet and king.”

Last Sunday, we celebrated the Baptism of Jesus. At the end of the baptism a voice from heaven declares, “This is my beloved Son with whom I am well pleased!”

Therefore, the order of those acknowledging the birth of Jesus, the Newborn King of the Jews, were first the choir of angels, then the shepherd in the field, the Magi and finally God himself.

WHO IS NEXT? I think that the Gospel points to you and me as the next “witnesses” to our belief that Jesus is truly the Son of God. We do this primarily by the witness of our lives through our values, attitudes and behavior. I trust that our weekly homilies offer you practical examples of how we do this. “May the good that the Lord has begun in you and me be brought to its completion.”

SPECIAL WORDS OF THANKS: I’d like to express my sincerest words of gratitude to all those who assisted in decorating the church, as well as, Jillian Vincinanza and all those who played a musical instrument or sang, in addition to our Ushers, Eucharistic Ministers, Lectors, Sacristans and facility helpers.

“WORD OF GOD” SUNDAY: Next weekend we will be celebrating “Word of God” Sunday. I would ask that you please bring your Bibles, Old or New Testaments and other spiritual resources centered around the Word of God to Mass.

We will be blessing these Holy Books at each of the Masses next weekend. It will serve as a reminder that the regular reading and praying over the Scriptures should be part of our regular spiritual reading.

Ministries and Events

Word of God Sunday - January 24 & 25, 2026

Pope Francis issued an apostolic letter entitled "Aperuit illis" instituting the "Sunday of the Word of God" to be held every year on the third Sunday of Ordinary Time.

The Pope intended it to be a day dedicated to the celebration, reflection, and dissemination of the Word.

We are inviting all parishioners to bring their Bibles to Mass on Saturday, January 24 or Sunday, January 25 so we can offer a prayer for God's blessing upon us as we commit to read our Bibles and let God's Word guide our lives.

Today, we are brought back to reality, the Christmas lights are being packed away, trees are going back to the attic, Santa is home in the North Pole taking a nap.

Today it all begins, we hear John proclaiming that Jesus is the Lamb of God, his ministry has begun and for a few weeks we will hear about his choosing his apostles and the parables until we are plunged into Lent. GOSPEL MEDITATION

It's common to hear belief in Jesus and the Church mocked as blind faith and credulity. But in reality, it is deeply human and rational. Think about it: we rely on the testimony of others constantly. I trust chemists who certify the safety of toothpaste and cleaning products. I trust engineers when I use a microwave or drive over a bridge. Why? Because they have studied and seen what I have not, and their testimony proves itself in daily life. That kind of trust is not irrational; it is how human knowledge works.

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist declares: "Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God" (John 1:34). That is the language of an eyewitness. It invites us into a very human act: trusting someone who has directly encountered something — or Someone — we have not yet fully seen ourselves.

The Church's faith is built on this kind of reliable sight-based testimony. The Apostles did not make abstract claims. They saw, followed, suffered for, and proclaimed Jesus Christ. Over centuries, their witness — carried in Scripture, in the lives of the saints, and in the sacramental life of the Church — has proven dependable. We come to know its truth by assenting to it, by living and studying it, praying with it, trusting it.

Faith in Christ is not a childish leap into the dark. It is a step into the light of testimony that proves itself over time.

Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY

Do we recognize Christ when we see him? Do we have the courage to point him out, to show others who he is? John cried out so the whole world could hear: "He is the Son of God." Always and everywhere, let us do the same.

Question: How many times a day can a person receive communion?

Q & A

Answer: To find an answer to this question, we need to turn to the Church's Code of Canon Law. Here we read, "One who has received the blessed Eucharist may receive it again on the same day only within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates ..." (no. 917). This tells us that the standard answer would be that we can receive communion twice in a day. Having said that, we also want to be sure that we pay attention to the entire instruction. The phrase "within a Eucharistic celebration in which that person participates" is important. It means a) that we always have to think of receiving communion as being within a celebration of the Mass and b) we have to be participants in that celebration – we can't simply show up "in time" for communion. So, when would this rule apply? For example, if you attend Mass on a Saturday morning and then take part in the Sunday Vigil Mass on Saturday evening, you could licitly receive communion at both celebrations. Or, another example, if you receive communion at a wedding or funeral Mass, you could also receive communion at a daily Mass or Sunday Vigil celebrated on the same day. We always want to be sure that we observe the rules for fasting from food and drink before receiving the eucharist (see Code of Canon Law, no. 919). We should also remember that the Code of Canon Law instructs that anyone who is in danger of death or seriously ill may also receive communion a second time (no. 91, §2).
