A Note from the Pastor

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST:

MOTHER'S DAY:

This weekend we celebrate all our mothers, both living and deceased. Gratefully, many of us have or had a wonderful relationship with our mother. This is a true blessing.

I think of my own mother today and the blessing she was to me throughout my life even now that the Lord has called her home to Him almost thirteen years ago. My mother was the true heart of our family. In some way, it's hard to believe that it is already almost thirteen years since she passed.

How many mothers have shared with me that becoming a mother was their greatest desire in life?

"Being a mother is not about what you gave up having a child, but what you've gained by having one."

It's Mother's Day and we want to express our gratitude and love to all our mothers. We owe so much to you for your selfless love, dedication, and care.

However, it is important that we acknowledge that not everyone has, or had, a close relationship with their mother. It is also a sad fact that there are many women who wanted the blessing of becoming mothers but were not given that special gift. In addition, there are mothers whose child has passed away. For these women, "Mother's Day" is especially trying and painful. We need to be mindful of them and support them with our loving kindness, affection, and prayers.

Mother's Day Blessings to all our mothers! Thank you for the blessing you have been to us!

OUR SCHOOL TIME CAPSULE:

Last Saturday we had the privilege and joy of opening the Time Capsule that was planted in the front lawn on May 5, 1976. We were so amazed at the number of students that were able to attend. I believe that the turnout was around 200 people.

When the capsule was opened it revealed letters written by the students of St. James, and some of the teachers and the principal along with a boy's and girl's school uniform. There was so much enthusiasm as each person looked for the letter that they had written.

I am so grateful to Kelley Sommerville for coordinating and planning the entire event. Kelly wrote on the St. James School Facebook page, "Well, THAT was fun!!! From the comments and smiles and laughter from everyone yesterday I'd say it was a fabulous day all around. . ."

I just want to thank the committee members that stepped up and answered the call to help bring yesterday to everyone. They say it takes a village well; it took an awesome committee! Neil Malvone, Renee Thompson, Joe Koenig, Claudia O'Connor, Jill Delano, Julie Angione, Liz Schimmoller, Brien Costello, Karen Devlin, Linda Padilla, Maureen Foy, Joe Wolf and Chris Holmes and Dcn. Chris Daniello.

Thank you all so glad to have had this time to come together to bring such joy to so many."

Thank you again, Kelley! I am so appreciative to you and the committee and to all those who came for this most enjoyable event!

GOSPEL MEDITATION

In my family, we can hardly speak about orphans without tears. My father was adopted as a baby. He frequently told us stories of how his parents welcomed him not just into their home but into their hearts. It was never merely a relocation or a legal transaction. It was the joy of being chosen, of receiving a family, a name, and a place where he belonged forever. Even in his later years, recalling that gift still moves him to tears of tender gratitude.

That is the kind of tenderness behind Jesus' words in today's Gospel: "I will not leave you orphans; I will come to you." (John 14:18) He is going away, but not abandoning us. Instead, he sends us the Advocate, the Holy Spirit — his own Spirit, shared with the Father — who dwells in us. Through the Spirit, Christ is present in us, and we are present in him. His Spirit gives us a home and a family.

We deepen this knowledge in the sacraments, in prayer, and in the daily life of the Church. The Spirit is the bond of belonging, the power that makes us God's sons and daughters, not spiritual orphans. And this is not a one-time event. There is always a deeper outpouring of the Spirit available to us, a fresh appropriation of the promise that we are never abandoned.

If only we could be as grateful as my dad is for his adoption, realizing that we have been adopted by God Himself. In Christ, we are never left as orphans.

Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY

When we want to see Christ's face, we must look to the Sacraments. "The world will no longer see me," Christ tells his disciples, "but you will see me." This ability to see Jesus is a gift of the Holy Spirit, one made again and again — even today.

Ministries and Events

Spring has sprung and we are back! Cigars and Prayers!

Join me on Wednesday evenings from 7pm to 9pm in the St. James parking lot in front of the Grotto of Mary, (look for the fire pit) as we all enjoy a cigar (or two) as we pray and discuss the upcoming gospel. Please bring a lawn chair.

Smoke Signals to the Heavens

In some ways, the act of puffing on a cigar resembles the act of prayer. The smoke, rising skyward, could be seen as a modern day offering to the heavens, a visible manifestation of thoughts, hopes or gratitude ascending to realms unseen. Is it mere Coincidence that smoke has played a pivotal role in spiritual rituals for millennia? Like the incense used in our church in the sacred rituals, smoke has long been seen as a bridge between the earthly and the divine.

Similarly, prayer is an act of deliberate intention. Whether whispered in solitude or shared in communal reverence, it creates a space for connection—connection to the divine, to yourself, or to something greater than the visible world. Like the cigar smoker, the one who prays steps into another realm, a place where distractions fade and presence takes over.

Question: One of my coworkers said that Catholics believe we kill Christ again when we celebrate the Mass since it is his sacrifice. I know that is not right, but how do we explain it?

Q & A

Answer: We do indeed believe that the Mass is the unbloody sacrifice of Jesus on the cross and we believe that the sacrifice is made present again on the altar—not to repeat it, but to join ourselves to it. We are joined to the saving work of Christ, not just simply remembering it.

The closest thing we might have in our culture is when a couple saves some wedding cake in the freezer, and on their first anniversary they may watch their wedding video and eat the cake, all to recapture the moment. The Jews celebrate a Seder meal, not to remember the Passover, but to participate in it through the ritual foods, questions, and readings. The Catechism of the Catholic Church describes the Mass as the "Holy Sacrifice, because it makes present the one sacrifice of Christ" (#1330). To think that we must sacrifice Christ over and over again would negate what he did on Calvary. To celebrate and renew it each day allows us to participate in it. That is the "source and summit" of Christian life (#1324).
