A Note from the Pastor

DEAR BROTHERS AND SISTERS IN CHRIST:

SO LONG JUNE, HELLO JULY! Well, this coming week we enter the month of July. I think that I might have shared with you that my mother always thought that the summer months went by so quickly that she referred to the summer as JulAugust. While many of us will be taking summer vacations, there are others who will be taking “staycations.” I have often taken staycations as I enjoy visiting but then coming back to own rooms.

By the end of this week, Msgr. Michael will be off to Ghana for the month of July to see family and friends. I certainly hope that his time away will be refreshing and enjoyable for him. Fr. Benjamin will be taking the month of August as his summer vacation time. Again, this down time will be an important time of renewal and refreshment for him. Neither of them get my “sense of humor,” when I tell them that I hope they will enjoy their time away as much as I will.

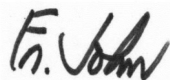

Of course, we are all looking forward to the arrival of Fr. Melchizedek, who will be with us throughout the months of July and August. I always enjoy his being here as he shares many stories about his teaching and some reflections about life back in Nigeria.

Again, I will be taking the last two weeks of July and August as my vacation time. While I have no set plans, I will visit some friends and family and hope to visit Pennsylvania and upstate New York. I haven’t been to the Poconos in several years so a trip there would be very enjoyable, revisiting old sights and visiting new places.

I also hope to go to New Paltz and the Fishkill area to visit with some close friends and family. We have little time to spend with each other. Because of the distance I haven’t spent any holidays with my family in several years. I know that they would like to see me, but they have come to understand my responsibilities as a pastor. I often refer to you as my family, which is what I truly believe. This month represents 16 years that I have served here. St. James has been a wonderful experience for me. I am delighted that we have been together all this time.

AMERICA’S 250TH ANNIVERSARY: July 4th is the 250th Anniversary of the beginning of our country. We are planning a special celebration in the evening on July 11th after the 4:00 PM Mass. We will have food, special treats, games, music and a movie to close out the evening. I hope that you will be able to join us. Please use the sign-up sheet in the bulletin to register for that celebration

I hope that if you will be traveling during July and August that it will be relaxing and refreshing for you as well.

GOSPEL MEDITATION

I still remember the first homily I ever preached as a new deacon. It was at the seminary, and the Gospel was this one: “Whoever loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me.” (Matthew 10:37-38) Standing before more than 200 classmates and professors, I stumbled awkwardly through my words and realized how strange — almost insane — this teaching sounded. If anyone else said it, we would call it narcissistic or cultish.

And that is the point. I felt the weight of those words in my own heart then, as I still do today. Am I willing to live as though Christ’s claim on my love is absolute? Are you?

Over the years, I’ve learned that the more I do, the more everything else makes sense. Family, friendships, vocation, even my very self: all of it falls into place when my love for Jesus comes first.

That is why he dares to speak this way. Our Lord is not a cult leader hungry for control. He is the Son of God, the source of life and love itself. To put him before everything else is not to lose, but to find...everything, and everyone, in him.

This week, name one thing or one person you are tempted to place before the Lord. Then consciously offer it back to him in prayer.

Father John Muir

LIVE THE LITURGY

Whoever receives the one sent in Christ’s name receives Christ. Whoever loves the Word of God loves God Himself. Who is Christ sending to you in his name this week? What Word do they speak into the stillness of your soul? Receive them. Receive him.

Fall Bible Study

Rooted and Radiant - A Study of Colossians

Rooted and Radiant* was written for any woman who wants to live her life grounded in Jesus Christ.

Rooted and Radiant* is ideal if you want to ...

- Know Jesus as He is.
- Know how to stay faithful in the middle of a culture that is constantly telling you that Christ is not enough.
- Know how to sift through the modern messages that are being thrown at you.
- Be able to compare the glamour of the world to the infinite value of "being in Christ".

Through this Bible study, we dive deep into understanding who Jesus is and what that means for us. We learn how to abide in the wisdom of Christ to navigate the ever-increasing demands and messages of our culture, and what it means to live in the freedom of Christ and how to continually set our minds on Him.

Interested? Dawn Daniello will be guiding this Woman's Bible Study on Thursday evenings (Sept 17th & 24th, Oct 1st, 15th, 22nd, & 29th, please take notice there will be no class on Oct 8th) from 7pm – 8:30pm in the parish center, room 112,

SILVER ROSE PRAYER SERVICE

Honoring Our Lady of Guadalupe and the sanctity of every human life.

THURSDAY
AUGUST 13TH

7:00 PM

SAINT JAMES CHURCH
SEAFORD, NEW YORK

“Through the Silver Rose Program, we honor not only Our Lady of Guadalupe and express the unity of the Knights of Columbus, but we also reaffirm our dedication to the sanctity of human life. It is to the Blessed Mother that we turn in prayer as we work to end the Culture of Death that grips our society. As we think in terms of ‘One Life, One Rose,’ it is most appropriate that we turn to Our Lady of Guadalupe who made known her will through Juan Diego and the miracle of the roses.”

— Past Supreme Knight Carl A. Anderson —

AS WE THINK IN TERMS OF “ONE LIFE, ONE ROSE,”
LET US TURN TO OUR BLESSED MOTHER IN PRAYER.

All are invited!

Question: I've heard of the Corporal and Spiritual Works of Mercy. What are they, and what's the difference?

Q & A

Answer: As God has shown us mercy, so too are we called to show mercy to those we encounter. We see mercy throughout the Gospels, but the parable in Matthew 25 forms the foundation for the first set of Works of Mercy. This parable of the last judgment shows each person being asked how well they cared for those around them, and being reminded that this care for those in need is care for God Himself. Each person is asked if they have fed the hungry, given drink to the thirsty, clothed the naked, sheltered the stranger, cared for the sick, and visited the imprisoned. These — along with burying the dead — are the Corporal Works of Mercy, as they primarily concern the physical life of a person. The list of the Spiritual Works of Mercy developed later. These actions of love primarily concern the inner life of a person. They are instructing the ignorant, counseling the doubtful, admonishing sinners, bearing wrongs patiently, forgiving offenses, comforting the afflicted, and praying for both the living and the dead. All of these actions are concrete ways of bringing the love of God into the world.
